In Pirna (www.pirna.de) the course takes a loop through the historic old town before it leads the runners on the cycling route along the Elbe river (www.elberadweg.de) towards Dresden (www.dresden.de). Past the „Blaues Wunder“, Dresden's famous suspension bridge nicknamed „Blue wonder“ the course passes the three castles Eckberg, Lingnerschloss and Albrechtsberg built along the river. With a view at the rebuilt church Frauenkirche (www.frauenkirche-dresden.de) as well as other great sights in the heart of Dresden the course finishes in the Heinz-Steyer stadium.

The half marathon starts in Pirna and enters the cycling route along the Elbe river after half a kilometre. The 10-km run starts below the „Blaues Wunder“ bridge and the 5-km run starts at the „Waldschlößchenbrücke“ bridge direct on the cycling route along the Elbe river.
